Welcome to Melbourne

VicTennis and the GLTA welcome you to Melbourne and our Midsumma Tournament in 2018.
This year has been one of exciting growth for LGBTI Tennis in Melbourne and we are thrilled to be playing alongside the Australian Open at Melbourne Park. This collaboration gives players access to the facilities of a Grand Slam event, which we believe to be the best facility in the world.
We have an action-packed event calendar and we hope you enjoy all the action on and off the courts. This hand book will be your guide to all that’s happening.
Please don’t hesitate to approach myself or one of the gorgeous volunteers at our dedicated Players Help Desk for help or advice. We sincerely hope you have a great tournament.
Welcome to Midsumma 2018, its back and better this year. For the first time Melbourne Midsumma is played over 3 days and includes singles as well as doubles events. I am pleased to say we have the largest field ever assembled in a GLTA Tournament in Australia. Melbourne is truly the greatest sporting city in the world.

VicTennis and the GLTA are organisations which bring people together to play the sport they love. Our collaboration with the GLTA enables Melbourne to attract players from around the world to enjoy the amazing city, a Grand Slam event and the world class facilities at Melbourne Park. These so much action all in one place this year.

I have been assisted in so many ways by Adam Fitzgerald, our Assistant Tournament Director, who has the most amazing attention to detail. Mauro C the creative genius behind all of our amazing graphic design and artwork and Amos Abraham our resident socialite who has organised the Players Fancy Dress party. The VicTennis Committee also have been a valuable source of support. This year with such a huge event, our regular members are going to be assisting in many of the day to day operations during the tournament and I thank them in advance.

Jetstar is our principle sponsor this year. As a Sponsor to the wider Midsumma festival, their support for the LGBTI communities is amazing. Also in terms of the GLTA Asia Pacific, they fly to each destination where a GLTA sanctioned event is held; making Jetstar the perfect airline for those tennis trips away.

The event is also being supported with the generosity the City Of Stonnington where VicTennis holds many of it’s year round events. The Grand in Richmond where our Tennis fancy dress party will be held.

Lastly, I must thank Andrew Neild and Alan Webb from Tennis World who have advocated for VicTennis and the GLTA with Tennis Australia and who have been instrumental in getting this tournament up and running. Tennis Australia have also been very supportive and it is a testament to their diversity efforts.

We sincerely hope that you have an amazing experience with us at Melbourne Midsumma Tournament 2018

On behalf of the VicTennis committee, I’d like to welcome you all to Melbourne and the 2018 Midsumma Tournament. Not only will we be playing on the world class Melbourne Park clay courts, but right in the middle of the Australian Open, so when you’re not playing tennis, you have the choice of watching the live action clay court side or catching Serena’s comeback on court – either way there’s bound to be plenty screaming and great tennis.

Rowen and the Organising Committee have worked tirelessly to put together the best tournament possible for you to enjoy, so we hope that it’s memorable one for you.

The fun doesn’t stop off the court either – we’ve got our tennis fancy dress players party on the Saturday night, as well as our Awards Evening on the Sunday night. We hope you have a wonderful time in Melbourne.

MYKL PRIONAS

Melbourne is spoilt for great vineyards on the doorstep of the city – in fact surrounding the city boundary! Here is a short list as we circle the compass.

Levantine Hill, Yarra Valley

Yarra Valley is in the hills to the east of Melbourne, and well known for Pinot Noir, Chardonnay as well as cool climate Shiraz and Cabernet. Levantine Hill is along Maroondah Highway and to get there you pass other milestone vineyards like Coombe Farm (tasting room in the stables of Dame Nellie Melba’s house), Oakridge and Yarra Yering. On the Estate is an Ezard restaurant, and lunch there is a gastronomical delight. If you don’t feel like driving, there is a helicopter service available from the centre of Melbourne near Crown Casino! In the tasting room, ask for Peter Shone – if he is working then you are in for a treat. Some wines can be on the expensive side, but all are fabulous in their price range. Even the Coldstream Guard range has a fabulous rosé for less than $35 per bottle.

Montalto, Mornington Peninsula

Mornington Peninsula is to the south east of Melbourne, and this food and wine region focuses on the town of Red Hill. Another cool climate region, famous for Chardonnay – as well as Pinot Noir and Shiraz. My favourite place to stop is Montalto vineyard, where they have great wood-fired pizza available for lunch outdoors in their vegetable garden, accompanied by their fabulous rosé. They also have an outdoor sculpture park to wander around after. If you are looking for something more up-market, try the modern chic designed Port Phillip Estate or better still, the relaxing lunch venue that is Paringa Estate. Leave a little time after lunch for a visit to the beaches!

Heathcote II, Heathcote

Heathcote region is to the north of Melbourne, out past the airport. There is a seam of red Cambrian soil that runs through the region, providing the perfect terroir for Shiraz. Heathcote II is owned and managed by Peder and Lionel, and with their European roots and classical French training they make exquisite handcrafted premium wines of the highest quality. Their Shiraz is excellent and great value for money. But don’t overlook their Tempranillo and Grenache. The vineyard is about 30 km past Heathcote on the way to Echuca, in the tiny hamlet of Toolleen. The guys have a B&B on the vineyard, so why not make a weekend of it and stay the night? The cellar door is open on the weekends, during the week it is best to make an appointment. On the way out from Heathcote, you will pass by Sanguine Estate – an essential stop for a little research on the way!

As has become customary, I cast my eye over the completed draws and muse on some of the more enticing match ups that await us at Melbourne Midsumma 2018. This tournament, the largest ever GLTA sanctioned event in Australia promises to provide scintillating action on court.

The Matriarchs 50+ Doubles event made its debut at our Hard Court Championships Masters event in September and proved to be popular with our more experienced players. The winners from that event are back but Mark C & Andrew P face a number of stiff challenges if they are to hoist the trophy again. The pairing of Ken C & Shane F brings consistency and glamor to the court not seen since Tracey Austin & Chris Evert-Lloyd briefly teamed up in the early 80s; they are our number one seeds.

In Open we have a situation where mysterious players from far off lands have snuck into the draw to compete with more familiar local faces. How will our local hope Jack M, Tim W and Finnian A fair against the German Paul-Ernst P and American Ted R? In the doubles, they are fun on and off the court, but Byron W & Jack M have a number of class teams to contend with. Daniel O the GLTA Hong Kong Tournament director is teaming up with Gen H from Japan, they will be dangerous. Recently promoted to Open and crowd favourites Mauro C & Nath C as well as the very successful duo of Jason P & Shih-Ern Y round out a very talented draw.

In A singles Greg Egril may be a local Melbourne lad but his allegiances are firmly with Bali where he not only runs the Bali G Slam GLTA Tournament, he is the number 3 seed. The depth in this draw is incredible. Big serving Cameron H is only 10th seed and the master of the double handed drive volley, Jarrod G isn’t even seeded; though having less pressure may make them more dangerous. Special mention goes to my great friend and crafty Frenchman Hugo B who jumped at the chance to play at Melbourne Park, he’s one to watch out for. Looking at the doubles draw its hard to see a clear favourite duo though all the way from Perth number one seeds Tony B (Perth GLTA Tournament director) & Greg B are a great team can they go one better this year and lift the trophy. Recent Hong Kong A Doubles Champion Kevin D (AKA Kathy P) & Huy P, local nice guys (till you cross them) Mikey M & Ben W and the exciting Spanish team of Endika G and Brian R are all in with a good chance of claiming the trophy.

The draw in B is no less hazardous. Its great to see the Ace Girls turn out to play at Midsumma. Their organiser in chief TJ is our number 1 seed in singles, we wish her all the best. GLTA Bangkok Tournament organiser Lou F, dangerous unseeded floater Matthew P and effervescent Singaporean Shane T add interest to an already action-packed event. In the B Doubles, it will be fascinating to get the first glimpse of number 1 seeds Danny H & Kevin M, who are joining us for the first time. The Sino(HK)-British pairing of Peter R &
Alfred W, rapidly rising duo of Shah S & Oscar W and local good time boys Justin R & Shannon W; are all teams that I’ll be hoping to see play, such is their class.

With a gorgeous smile and great groundstrokes, another of the Ace Girls, Demetra G is the real deal as our number 1 seed in C singles. Players such as Hobart GLTA Tournament Director Hendry L, Mark W from Perth and Clint S from Bali will battle it out with locals such as the incredibly consistent Calvin T, fiery Mitchell L and tricky Sam L. In the doubles stand out team and number 1 seeds Joe D & Russell T will be challenged by the likes of the naughty and nice pairing of Justin A & Travis D (you work out who’s who), the longstanding pairing of Socialite Amos A & the gorgeous Neil A as well as my tip as the team to watch in C, Andrew P & Adam F.

In D singles, Kevin P, though unseeded is one of those players you know can do well. Standing in his way of glory is the ever-consistent Nazir I, recently adopted Melbournian number 1 seed Stephen Q and the entertaining (and not just when mixing cocktails) Jason S. In D doubles there are some notable returning players. Its so good to see the Anglo-Spanish team of Terry A & Jesus M back for a second successive year. Joining them is last year’s runner up Kazue I who teams with newcomer Marion H. Established pairings of Patrick W & Kieran Ryan from Sydney, our number 1 seeds will be pitted against scratch pairing such as Krystan C & Jason K and Venezuelan Ronald C & Stephen Q. Anyone could win it.

Have a great tournament everyone!
